

Jim “Mr. Stinky Feet” Cosgrove

Bio and Discography 2006

- Hometown: Kansas City, MO
- Family: As the youngest of eight children, Jim credits his family as the driving force behind his career and music. His wife and tour manager, Jeni really doesn't mind being called “Mrs. Stinky Feet.” Their daughter Lyda Rene, joined the traveling team in 2004, and goes by her nickname “Ms. Sweet Feet.”
- Education: B.A. Journalism, Marquette University, Milwaukee, WI
M.A. English; University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, NM
- Influences: Woody Guthrie; Pete Seger; Peter, Paul, & Mary; Joni Mitchell; John McCutcheon; Jimmy Buffett; and scads of singing nuns throughout 17 years of Catholic education.
- Past lives: Jim worked as a New Mexico newspaper reporter, teacher, corporate PR flak in Tennessee, and national public speaker before having the sense enough to get a “real” job making children laugh.
- Birthday: April 27, 1965
- Discography: Bop Bop Dinosaur (1998 – re-released 2005)
Stinky Feet (1999 – re-released 2002)
Ooey Gooey (2000)
Stinky Feet Live! (DVD – 2001)
Pick Me! Pick Me! (2003)
Mr. Stinky Feet's Christmas (2003)
Mr. Stinky Feet's Road Trip (2005 –Warner Bros. / Jack Kids Records)
- Awards: 2002 – Parents' Choice Recommended Award for “Stinky Feet”
2003 – Parents' Choice Recommended Award for “Pick Me! Pick Me!”
2003 – National Parenting Publications Award for “Pick Me! Pick Me!”
2005 – Parents' Choice Recommended Award for “Bop Bop Dinosaur”

Jim appears solo, or with his band, The Hiccups.

For pricing information contact Hiccup Productions, Inc., at 913-219-4815

www.jimcosgrove.com